

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the State upon the warrant of the Comptroller out of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds or Certificates of Indebtedness, for the payment of the expense of engraving, printing and other outlays connected with the issue of the loan hereby authorized, and for the payment of the advertising directed by this Act, and all other incidental expenses connected with the execution of its provisions in connection with said loan.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the actual cash proceeds of the sale of the certificates of indebtedness to be issued under this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer of the State upon the warrant of the Comptroller, and such proceeds shall be used exclusively for the following purposes, to wit:

The Comptroller shall immediately upon the sale of and payment for said bonds or certificates of indebtedness, first return to and credit the Treasury for a sum equivalent to the amount expended, as provided for by Section 5 of this Act; the remainder of the proceeds of the said loan shall be paid to the Board of Directors of the Maryland School for the Blind for the construction and equipment of a building or buildings on its premises for the colored deaf and blind at said school.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of the several counties of the State and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby respectively directed to levy the State taxes for the year 1950 at one-seventy-fifth ( $1/75$ ) of a cent on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessable property; for the year 1951 at one-thirtieth ( $1/30$ ) of a cent on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessable property; and for the years 1952 to 1965, inclusive, at one-tenth ( $1/10$ ) of a cent on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessable property, to be collected according to law, to meet the interest on the amount of said certificates outstanding, and also to meet and redeem so much of the principal in each of said years as may be represented by certificates redeemable in each year.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
