

(J) That the town Treasurer shall attend all meetings of said Commission, and shall act as Clerk to said Commission, and shall keep the minutes of the same. Provided, however, that said Commission may, by resolution, appoint another person to keep such minutes whenever in the judgment of said Commission the welfare of said town requires such action; and, in making such appointment, said Commission may appoint one of its own members or other proper person.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted:

(A) That the District Heights Commission shall have power to pass and enact such ordinances, consistent with law, as said Commission may deem proper for carrying into execution the provisions of this Charter, or for the good government, public health, safety and morals of said town. Provided, however, that no such ordinance or ordinances shall have any force or effect unless and until the same shall have been submitted to the registered voters of said town at an annual or a special election called for that purpose, and the same shall have been adopted by a majority vote of said registered voters of said town at such election. Any such election for the adoption or rejection of any such ordinance or ordinances shall be conducted by the Board of Election Supervisors in the manner provided by Section 10 of this Act. Any such ordinance or ordinances so passed or enacted by said Commission and so adopted by a majority of the registered voters of said town at an election, as aforesaid, shall have the force and effect of law within said town on the tenth day, (including Sundays and holidays), after said Commission shall have posted a notice to that effect, together with a copy of such ordinance or ordinances, in five public places in said town. And it shall be the duty of said Commission to post such notices, together with copies of any such ordinance or ordinances, within ten days, (including Sundays and holidays), after said Commission shall have been notified in writing by the Board of Election Supervisors of the adoption of any such ordinance or ordinances. And it shall be the duty of said Board of Election Supervisors to give such written notice to said Commission of the adoption or rejection of any such ordinance or ordinances within ten days (including Sundays and holidays), after such ordinance or ordinances shall have been adopted or rejected by the registered voters of said town at an election held as aforesaid.

(B) That, upon petition of sixty (60) per centum of
