

the registered voters of said town, who are resident-tax-payers upon real property in said town, any ordinance, consistent with law, for the government of said town, shall be submitted by said Commission, for adoption or rejection by the registered voters of said town, within thirty (30) days, (including Sundays and holidays), after such petition shall have been filed with said Commission at one of the regular monthly meetings of said Commission. Provided, however, (a) that such petition shall be typewritten or printed, (b) that such petition shall set forth in complete detail each and all the provisions of the ordinance, in proper form to be submitted for adoption or rejection, (c) that such petition shall be sworn to before the Secretary Commissioner, as to the genuineness of the signatures thereon or attached thereto, by the person presenting such petition to, or filing such petition with, said Commission, and (d) that not less than ten (10) typewritten or printed copies of such petition be filed with said Commission at the time that the original petition is so presented or filed. And the election for the adoption or rejection of any such ordinance shall be conducted in the manner provided by Section 10 of this Act, and any such ordinance shall go into force in the same manner as is provided for in Paragraph A of this Section.

(C) That in order to insure the observance of such ordinances, in addition to the action of debt or other civil remedies as may exist by law in such cases for the recovery of penalties or forfeiture for violations of such ordinances, such ordinances may provide for the payment of reasonable fines, not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for such violation, and may provide that in default of payment of any such fine the delinquent shall be committed to the county jail of Prince George's County for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, or until such fine is paid. And it shall be the duty of the Sheriff of said County to receive any person so committed and detain the same until such sentence shall have been served or until such fine shall have been paid.

(D) Any Justices of the Peace that may reside in said town or elsewhere in Prince George's County shall have the power to hear, try and determine all criminal cases where the Town of District Heights is a party as they may have in cases where the State of Maryland is a party. All such proceedings instituted by or on behalf of said town shall be instituted in the name of the "Town of District Heights"; all pleadings or other papers filed in such pro-
