

Laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective until it shall have been submitted, for adoption or rejection, to the qualified voters of Howard County at the general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1936. There shall be printed on the ballots to be used at said election the title of this Act and underneath said title on separate lines, a square or box to the right of and opposite the words "For Motion Pictures on Sunday," and a corresponding square or box to the right of and opposite the words "Against Motion Pictures on Sunday," so that the voters shall be able to designate by a cross mark in the proper square or box his or her decision for or against said question. If a majority of the votes cast on said question shall be "For Motion Pictures on Sunday," then this Act shall become immediately effective, but if a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be "Against Motion Pictures on Sunday," then this Act shall be null and void and of no effect whatsoever.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1936.

Approved April 29, 1936.
