

considered as the property of the decedent for proper administration proceedings. The applicant and the local unit shall execute and deliver all necessary instruments to give effect to this section.

7-B. If at any time during the continuation of assistance a pensioner shall become possessed of any property or income in excess of the amount stated in the application therefor, it shall be the duty of such pensioner immediately to notify the county welfare board or the Department of Welfare in Baltimore City, as the case may be, of the receipt or possession of such property or income, and thereupon the local board may, after a fair hearing, either cancel the assistance or alter the amount thereof. Any excess assistance previously paid shall be recovered as a debt, and recourse may also be had to any property of the applicant assigned as collateral security under an agreement to reimburse the State and local unit for assistance given to him.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1936.

CHAPTER 150.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County to borrow upon the faith and credit of said county to the amount of $135,000 and to issue and sell coupon bonds therefor, the proceeds thereof to be used for purchasing, acquiring, or condemning sites and for the constructing, building, equipping and furnishing of a school building on said site in the Town of Sharpsburg, and in the town of Maugansville, and for erecting an addition to the Sandy Hook School and an addition to the Mt. Lena School and equipping and furnishing same, and to provide for the payment of interest on said bonds and of the principal thereof by the levy of taxes, and to repeal Chapter 9 of the Acts of 1933.
