

be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and being passed on a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 13, 1936.

---

CHAPTER 155.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 1 and 2 of Article 49A of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Investments," authorizing investments in securities issued or insured under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved June 27, 1934, and known as the "National Housing Act," and declaring the same to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety.

(Vetoed)

---

CHAPTER 156.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to borrow, upon the faith and credit of said County, a sum not exceeding one hundred and eighty thousand dollars ($180,000.00) in order to provide funds for meeting an emergency which has developed from lack of adequate school facilities in said County, by providing funds for the construction of a junior high school at Kensington in said County and for the improvement of the grounds and streets surrounding the Chevy Chase School, and authorizing the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to evidence said borrowing by the issuance and sale of coupon bonds, and providing for the payment of said coupon bonds and the