

the case may be, shall each have the right to apply any such allotments, in whole or in part, to the relief of the unemployed or unemployable, or both, or to the ordinary purposes of government supported by local direct property tax levies or to the repayment of any obligations previously incurred for any of said purposes, as they may deem advisable. For the purpose of this sub-section, the term "unemployable" shall include dependent children as defined in Section 21 of Article 88A of the Annotated Code, and shall also include the blind; provided, however, that no expenditure of funds allocated under this sub-section shall relieve the County Commissioners of the various counties or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City from the duty of making local appropriations or levies as required by law for the aid to dependent children, aid to the blind or any other purpose within the scope of the Federal Social Security Act.

No allotment, allocation or disbursement from the State Fund shall operate to restrict or limit in any manner the power of the various counties or Baltimore City to finance and provide additional relief out of local revenue, to the extent authorized by law.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any one or more sections, clauses, sentences, or parts of this Act shall for any reason be questioned in any court, and shall be adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remaining provisions thereof but shall be confined in its operation to the specific provisions so held unconstitutional or invalid, and the inapplicability or invalidity of any section, clause or provision of this Act in any one or more instances shall not be taken to affect or prejudice in any way its applicability or validity in any other instance.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
