CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 231 and 232 of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Carroll County," sub-title "Mt. Airy," and Sections 579 and 580 of Article 11 of said Code, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Mt. Airy," authorizing an increase in the tax rate of Mt. Airy and authorizing the Mayor and Council of said town to borrow money under certain limitations.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 231 and 232 of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Carroll County," sub-title "Mt. Airy," and Sections 579 and 580 of Article 11 of said Code, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Mt. Airy," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

231. (579.) The Mayor and Council of Mt. Airy shall annually levy such tax upon all assessable property within the corporate limits, except such real estate as is used exclusively for farming purposes, as may be necessary for municipal purposes, not to exceed in any one year the sum of one dollar ($1.00) on the one hundred dollars ($100.00), and all taxes levied on property assessed as provided by this Act shall be a lien on said property—real and personal—until paid, and interest shall be chargeable on said taxes
