

In order that the prompt payment of interest on such notes, certificates of indebtedness or bonds and the prompt payment of said notes, certificates of indebtedness or bonds as they shall mature, shall be assured, the prompt and proper performance of the respective acts and duties heretofore defined is specifically enjoined, and any failure upon the part of any person, persons, body corporate or agent, to perform the necessary acts and duties in this Act set forth and to pay over said funds as required, or the use of said funds or any part thereof for any other purpose than is required by this Act, is hereby declared a crime and, upon indictment and conviction in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

522. The County Commissioners shall keep a separate record of its proceedings as District Council for each Taxing and Assessment District; shall deposit all money received by it on account of each district to the credit of the County Commissioners as District Council for such district; shall require the depository to give the same security for the repayment of the money deposited and to pay the same interest, as is now, or may hereafter be, required by the laws relating to the deposit of county funds.

505A. All benefit charges and taxes assessed and levied under this Act shall be collected by the Treasurer of Anne Arundel County. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall annually cause to be stamped upon the Treasurer's books opposite the properties of owners listed therein which are subject to such benefit charges and taxes, the annual benefit charges and the annual taxes levied against said properties. For the purpose of making such entries, the said Commissioners shall have free access to said books for thirty days prior to the time when the actual collection of taxes begins in said county. It shall not be within the power of said Treasurer to remit, change or amend said charges.

The Treasurer of Anne Arundel County shall cause to be printed upon his tax bills for the portions of said county in which the districts created by this Act are located, the following:

"To benefit charge for erosion prevention works	$.....
To District Tax for erosion prevention works	$.....
Total	$....."