

and provide a space for the interest and penalty, shall make the proper and necessary entries on all bills sent out, and shall collect the amounts noted thereon with the State and county taxes.

Said benefit charges and taxes shall, for all purposes of collection, be treated as county taxes, shall bear the same interest, be subject to the same penalties and advertised in the same manner as, and with county taxes, and all property subject to said benefit charges and taxes, if not paid before the annual tax sale, shall be sold for the same at the same time and in the same manner as said properties are sold for county taxes, and all of the law relating to the collection of county taxes, so far as the same is applicable, shall relate to the collection of said benefit charges and taxes. No property shall be redeemed from county tax sale, and no property sold by the County Commissioners after a final tax sale, shall be redeemed or sold except upon the payment of said benefit charges and taxes. The said Treasurer shall pay to the said County Commissioners, acting as District Council for the respective districts created by this Act, on or before the 10th day of every month, the amount of said benefit charges and taxes collected for each district by him to and inclusive of the last day of the preceding month, and upon the failure of said Treasurer to pay over said money as above directed, the amount in his hands due said Commissioners shall bear a penalty of one per centum per month for which the Treasurer shall be personally liable.

Upon the expiration of the term of the present treasurer of Anne Arundel County, the County Commissioners of said county are hereby directed to require the bonds of county treasurers to be conditioned upon the payment to said County Commissioners, acting as District Council for the districts created by this Act, of the amounts of money collected for it, in addition to the present requirements of said bonds.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall hereby be declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon by a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
