

CHAPTER 30.

AN ACT to enable every county, municipal or public corporation, special taxing district and/or political subdivision of the State of Maryland except the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to secure the benefits of an Act of the Congress of the United States of America approved June 16, 1933, known as the National Industrial Recovery Act, and any acts amendatory thereof, and any acts supplemental thereto and revisions thereof, and any further Act of the Congress of the United States of America to encourage public works to reduce unemployment and thereby to assist in the National Recovery and promote the public welfare; authorizing every county, municipal or public corporation, special taxing district and/or political subdivision of the State of Maryland except the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to construct, operate and maintain public works projects; providing for the award of contracts to construct such projects; to authorize and empower every county, municipal or public corporation, special taxing district and/or political subdivision of the State of Maryland except the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to borrow money for such purpose and to issue and sell negotiable bonds therefor; prescribing the mode of procedure for and regulating the issuance of such bonds and providing for the payment thereof; authorizing the levy of taxes, special assessments and the collection of fees, tolls and other charges to provide funds for the payment of said bonds; and providing for the enforcement thereof; and suspending inconsistent provisions of all other laws; and exempting Queen Anne's, Somerset, Garrett, Caroline, Carroll and Frederick Counties, and the incorporated towns in Talbot County, from the provisions of this Act and providing that the County Commissioners of Wicomico County shall not borrow in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) under the terms of this Act.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following terms wherever used or referred to in this Act shall have the following meaning unless a different meaning appears from the context:

(a) The term "municipality" shall mean any county, municipal or public corporation, special district and/or political subdivision of the State of Maryland, except the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.
