

municipality, including the right to require the municipality and the governing body and any proper officer, agent or employee of the municipality to assess, levy and collect taxes and special assessments, and to fix and collect fees, rents, tolls or other charges adequate to carry out any agreement as to, or pledge of such special assessments, fees, rents, tolls, or other charges, and to require the municipality and the governing body of the municipality and any officer, agent or employee of the municipality to carry out any other covenants and agreements and to perform its and their duties under this Act.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and bonds, interim certificates or other obligations may be issued hereunder for any project notwithstanding that any other law may provide for the issuance of bonds, interim certificates or other obligations for like purpose and without regard to the requirements, restrictions or other provisions contained in any other law. Bonds may be issued under this Act notwithstanding any debt or other limitation prescribed by any other law, and the mode and method of procedure for issuance of bonds under this Act need not conform to the provisions of any other law. Any proceedings heretofore taken under any other law by any municipality relating to the subject matter of this Act may be continued under such other law or under this Act, or at the option of the governing body may be discontinued and new proceedings instituted under this Act. Except in pursuance of any contract or agreement theretofore entered into by and between any municipality and any Federal agency, no municipality shall borrow any money or issue any bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Act after January 1, 1936. It is the purpose of this Act to enable municipalities to secure the benefits of the National Industrial Recovery Act, to encourage public works, to reduce unemployment and thereby to assist in the national recovery and promote the public welfare, and to these ends municipalities shall have power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out said purpose in addition to the express powers conferred in this Act; this Act is remedial in nature and the powers hereby granted shall be liberally construed.

SEC. 11A. And be it further enacted, That none of the provisions of this Act shall apply to Queen Anne's, Somer-
