

against all members of such mutual company against whom the board of directors of such company might have levied any assessment upon the date of the order authorizing rehabilitation. Such assessment or assessments shall cover the excess of the probable liabilities over the reasonable value of the assets together with the cost of collection and the probable percentage of uncollectibility thereof, but the total of all such assessments against any member shall not exceed the maximum amount fixed in the contract of that member. The Commissioner shall thereupon begin proper proceedings to collect such assessments from the members, or shall make sale thereof under Section 51I of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That insofar as the provisions of this Act be in conflict with other Acts or parts thereof, the provisions of this Act shall control.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That should any section or part of a section of this Act be held to be invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any of the remaining sections or part of a section of this Act, it being the legislative intent that the remainder of this Act shall stand, notwithstanding the invalidity of such section or part of section.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved December 15, 1933.

CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to repeal and reenact with amendments Section 347 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland of 1930 (Flack's Edition), title "Prince George's County", sub-title, "County Treasurer", making such change in the law pertaining to interest on County deposits as is deemed advisable and necessary as the result of the passage by the Federal Congress of the Glass-Stiegel Banking Act of 1933.
