

town," is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

5. The Mayor and Common Council shall cause to be levied against the abutting property owners the entire cost of said improvement, each lot being assessed the proportionate share of the total cost which the portion of said lot abutting on said street bears to the entire length so to be improved, provided however, that wherever any street is to be paved abutting on which there may be any property belonging to or dedicated to the use of said town, any or all such paving improvements in front of such property or dedication shall be paid for by said town in the same ratio as herein applied to individuals on the said street and to be paid for out of said town's funds. Said assessment shall become due and payable sixty days after the levying thereof and shall be a lien upon such abutting property and shall be payable all cash or in twenty equal installments six, twelve, eighteen, twenty-four, thirty, thirty-six, forty-two, forty-eight, fifty-four, sixty, sixty-six, seventy-two, seventy-eight, eighty-four, ninety, ninety-six, one hundred and two, one hundred and eight, one hundred and fourteen and one hundred and twenty months respectively, from said due date with interest at a rate to be fixed by the Mayor and Common Council, not to exceed six per cent per annum and the persons assessed or any one on his behalf shall at any time have the right to anticipate by payment of any or all installments of the assessments not then due and any assessment or part thereof remaining due or unpaid be enforced as a tax in the same manner as taxes due the town of Riverdale are enforced.

SECTION 2. Be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved December 15, 1933.

---

CHAPTER 51.

AN ACT to add one new section to Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Allegany County", sub-title "Old Age Pensions", to be