

ment or place of business, nor the bottling of beer at any place except where the same is brewed. Such license shall also authorize the sale of alcoholic beverages at the licensed place of business by the manufacturer to any other license holder in this State, and the transportation and delivery from the place of sale to such license holder or to a common carrier for such delivery. It shall not authorize the sale of alcoholic beverages for the consumption on the premises where manufactured or sold, nor the sale and delivery of alcoholic beverages within this State to any person other than a license holder under the laws of this State, provided, however, that a manufacturer of industrial alcohol may sell the same to its customers for bona fide commercial use and not for beverage purposes. Provided further that a license manufacturer of light beer or beer may sell to consumers for consumption off the premises where sold in lots of not less than a case of twenty-four bottles or in containers of not less than four gallons.

(2) Wholesaler's License. Such a license shall authorize the holder to import and keep for sale at the place or places therein designated and to sell, from a central office or location which shall be located upon a public street and shall have no blind or other thing to obstruct full view of the premises to persons passing along or upon said street (and which shall also be designated in the license) all alcoholic beverages to any other license holder in this State and deliver the same from the places designated to such license holder or to a common carrier for such delivery. No such license holder shall be permitted to sell any alcoholic beverage for delivery in this State except to another license holder. A holder of a wholesaler's license shall be entitled to receive and have a Class A license for the sale of light beer, beer, wines and liquors upon complying with all provisions relating to such licenses and provided such Class A license shall be for a separate place of business from that designated in the wholesaler's license, and separate books of accounts shall be kept for each place of business. None of the provisions of Chapter 5 of the Acts of the Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of 1933, relating to the filing of applications with the Clerk of the Court or publishing of notices, shall apply to applicants for manufacturer's or wholesaler's licenses.

(3) Light Beer Licenses. Class A. (Off Sale.) Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale and sell light beer at wholesale or retail at the place therein
