

lic auction at the Court House door in Princess Anne, to the highest bidder, for cash, after notice by advertisement in all the newspapers of said town, once a week for four successive weeks prior to the date of sale, but said President and Commissioners shall have the right to reject any bid at said sale less than the par value of said bonds, and thereafter readvertise said bonds for sale or sell said bonds at private sale for not less than the par value thereof; and the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for and applied to the payment and liquidation of all debts evidenced by promissory notes heretofore executed by the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, together with interest due thereon, by judgments entered against said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, together with interest and costs thereon, and by open accounts over due and owing by said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, as of the first day of November, nineteen hundred and thirty-three and the balance of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, if any, shall be set apart and applied to the redemption of the bonded indebtedness heretofore issued by the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, when and as such bonded indebtedness shall become redeemable.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That a supplemental registration of the voters of Princess Anne be held on the first Monday in February, nineteen hundred and thirty-four, under the same terms and conditions and in the same manner as a general registration, in so far as the same can be complied with and the persons registered hereunder participate in the election provided for by this bill.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That before the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall sell or issue any of the aforesaid bonds they shall first submit to the registered voters of the town of Princess Anne, at a special election to be held on the first Tuesday in February in the year 1934, the question as to whether said bonds shall be issued and sold and at said election only registered voters of said town of Princess Anne, shall be entitled to vote and said voters shall determine at said election, by ballot, whether said bonds shall be issued as aforesaid and the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall prepare ballots for said election, having printed thereon the words "For refunding bond issue" and "Against refunding bond issue," with a square after said words in each case so that the voter may determine by a cross mark in