

on or the retirement of any bonds which may be issued for the construction of sewers in said town. The said Mayor and Council shall also have the power to provide, by ordinance, for imposing a sewer rental or charge for the use of said sewers or for the privilege of connecting with same, the said rentals or charges to be used for the payment of the interest on said sewer bonds and for the retirement of the same and for the maintenance and improvement of said sewer system and shall not be diverted for any other purpose or discontinued until all of said sewer bonds shall have matured and been paid. In the event that the said excess surplus receipts from water and light, rents and the receipts from the charges or rentals for sewers shall not be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on said sewer bonds or the principal thereof, as it shall become due, the said Mayor and Council shall annually levy on the taxable property of said town such sums of money, in addition to the levy heretofore authorized, as shall, in their discretion, be necessary for the prompt payment of the interest on said sewer bonds and the principal thereof as it may become due.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective until submitted to the voters of the town of Berlin at such time as the said Mayor and Council shall determine and unless approved by a majority of the votes cast on said question. The said Mayor and Council are hereby authorized to provide for the holding of such election after giving five days' notice of said election.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved December 15, 1933.

CHAPTER 75.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 101A and 101B of Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Clams," as same was enacted by Chapter 431 of the Acts of 1931.
