

(b) The taxing body or bodies of each incorporated town or city of this State which shall have availed itself of the provisions of this Act by borrowing money or incurring indebtedness on its individual faith and credit are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy town or city taxes of an amount not in excess of 8c on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of assessable property, subject to town or city taxes, to be collected according to law, in such amount as will repay in full with interest the money or indebtedness incurred under this Act by such town or city, within the period of two years after said indebtedness was incurred.

207. The administration, expenditure and accounting of all sum or sums raised, borrowed or obtained by any county under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the control of the County Commissioners, or such other public body in the county as the County Commissioners may designate, including the County Welfare Board, or County Civil Works Board now existing, or which may hereafter be created or any similar public body in the county co-operating with the State or Federal Government in the administration of public relief or civil works funds.

That the administration, expenditure and accounting of all sum or sums raised, borrowed or obtained by any incorporated town or city under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the control of the governing body of such incorporated town or city, or such other public body as the governing body may designate.

208. That this Act being enacted to meet an emergency through the police power of the State, is hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and shall be liberally construed.

209. That should any section, or part of a section of this Act be held to be invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any remaining section or part of a section of this Act, it being the legislative intent that the remainder of this Act shall stand, notwithstanding the invalidity of such section or part of a section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety,
