

LAWS OF MARYLAND OF 1933

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At an Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis, on the Twenty-third day of November, 1933, and ending on the Eleventh day of December, 1933, the Honorable Albert C. Ritchie, being Governor of the State, the following laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 140 and 141 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title "Harford Air" as the same was enacted by Sections 4 and 5 of Chapter 254 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, 1927.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 140 and 141 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title "Bel Air" be, and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

"140. For the purpose of paying off the promissory notes and certificates of indebtedness and retiring the bonds issued under this Act, and of paying interest thereon there shall be levied against all the assessable property within the municipality annually, so long as any of said notes, certificates and bonds are outstanding, a tax sufficient in amount to meet the interest on said notes, certificates and bonds as it becomes due, and to pay the principal thereof as they mature, said tax to be fixed, levied and collected in the same manner as other municipal taxes now are or may be hereafter levied and collected in said town. The taxes levied under this Act shall have the same priority rights, bear the same interest and penalties, and in every respect be treated the same as other municipal taxes. In order that the prompt payment of interest and the proper provision for the pay-
