

which has been filed with the Clerk as herein provided, the Clerk shall, without any notice or advertisement, approve the issue of a temporary license of the same class to any such applicant. Temporary license shall entitle the holders thereof to operate thereunder immediately for a period not exceeding sixty days from the date of such temporary license and provided that all such temporary licenses shall expire immediately upon the action of the Court approving or refusing to approve the original application for a license. All temporary licenses herein provided shall be subject to revocation at any time as hereinafter provided with respect to revocation of licenses. The fee for such temporary license shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and upon final approval of the original application by the Court after notice as herein provided the applicant shall be required to pay a fee for such license to expire on April 30, 1934, which shall be computed as herein provided, and subject to credit for the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) paid for the temporary license. In the case of the disapproval of the original application by the Court or in the case of the revocation of any temporary license, the temporary licenses shall not be entitled to any refund.

Section 302. No City, town or municipal body in said County shall be permitted to impose any additional license fees or taxes other than the usual property tax, upon alcoholic beverages or the exercise of the privileges conferred by the licenses issued under the provisions of this Act, but any City, town or municipal body shall have the right to pass Ordinances not inconsistent with this Act, providing for the regulation and control of all licensees under this Act which shall be situated within the limits of the said City, town or municipality, or within one mile thereof, in order to assist in the enforcement of this Act; and with the right to impose penalties for the violation of such Ordinances.

Section 303. The Clerk shall receive all license fees under this Act for the issuance of licenses hereunder, and shall remit all sums of money received by him therefor upon manufacturers' and wholesalers' licenses to the Comptroller of the State of Maryland, less $1.00 for each license which shall be retained by him as a fee for the issuance thereof, and he shall remit to the County Commissioners for Allegany County all money received by him for the issuance of all other licenses under this Act, excepting the sum of $1.00 for each license so issued, which sum of
