

Section 312. Licenses issued under the provisions of this Act shall not be regarded as property or as conferring any property rights, all such licenses shall be subject to suspension, restriction, or revocation under the rulings of the Court.

Section 313. No more than one license provided by this Act, except by way of renewal, unless specifically set forth in this Act, shall be issued to any person or persons or for the use of any partnership, corporation, or unincorporated association in said County. Every license shall be appropriately numbered by the official issuing the same.

Section 314. Upon the death of the holder of any license prior to the expiration of the same, upon application made by the Executor or Administrator of the deceased licensee and upon the payment of a fee of $1.00, a certificate of permission may be granted by said Clerk for the continuation of the business of said licensee in the name of such Executors or Administrators for the benefit of the Estate for the period as shall remain to the expiration of said license and during the period of such continuation of said license, said Executors or Administrators shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act.

Section 315. Any holder of a license under the provisions of this Act may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location or to sell or assign said license to another person, provided that application for such transfer or sale shall be made and duly advertised and the new location or assignee shall be approved as in the case of an original application for such license. Such transfer or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the Clerk upon the payment of a fee of $1.00 in addition to the cost of publication and notice which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for such transfer or sale.

Section 316. No license shall be issued to a partnership as such, but only to the partners as individuals. No license shall be issued to a corporation or unincorporated association as such, but only to one or more individuals duly authorized to act for the corporation or association, and such individuals shall assume all of the responsibilities, and be subject to all of the penalties, conditions and restrictions imposed upon licensees under the provisions of this Act. The application for every such license shall disclose the