

2. PROHIBITION WITHOUT LICENSE. From and after the taking effect of the Twenty-first Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, no person shall at any time manufacture, blend, rectify, bottle, import or sell, or suffer to be manufactured, blended, rectified, bottled, imported or sold, or keep or suffer to be kept on his premises, in his possession or under his charge or control for the purpose of sale and delivery within this State, any alcoholic beverage without a license as hereinafter provided. Provided that nothing in this Act shall prohibit the sale and purchase of warehouse receipts covering distilled spirits on deposit in Government bonded warehouses and no special tax liability shall attach to the business of purchasing and selling such warehouse receipts, and provided further that any non-resident manufacturer or dealer in alcoholic beverages may sell and deliver alcoholic beverages without a license to any duly licensed manufacturer or wholesaler under the provisions of this Act, but no such non-resident manufacturer or dealer in alcoholic beverages shall be permitted to sell or deliver any alcoholic beverages to any other licensee under the laws of this State, or to any other person in this State, except as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that druggists and apothecaries shall not be required to obtain a license under the provisions of this Act for the compounding, sale or distribution of medicinal, antiseptic or toilet preparations, flavoring extracts and other preparations unfit for beverage purposes, nor for the compounding or sale of alcoholic beverages upon the written prescription of a regular physician, but no druggist or apothecary shall be permitted to sell any alcoholic beverages for beverage purposes without a license as hereinafter provided, and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall prohibit any common carrier, warehouseman or other lien holder from exercising his right to sell alcoholic beverages under a lien; or any sheriff, constable, attorney, trustee, auctioneer or receiver, executor or administrator from selling alcoholic beverages under an order of Court. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or to imprisonment for not more than two years, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

CLASSES OF LICENSES

3. There shall be several classes of alcoholic beverage licenses each of which shall be issued in the manner, authorize the doing of the things, and be subject to the
