

Comptroller all sales and purchases of alcoholic beverages for which the records prescribed by this Section are required to be kept.

In addition to the penalties prescribed by this Act, the Comptroller shall have power to suspend immediately, without a hearing, the license of any licensee who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Section, for a period not exceeding thirty days, and such license may be further suspended or revoked, after hearing, by the said Comptroller for the willful failure or refusal of any licensee to comply with any rule or regulations that may be adopted by the Comptroller in pursuance of this Act or any Act of Assembly relating to taxes payable to the State of Maryland by any licensee hereunder.

Section 316J. If any affidavit or oath required under the provisions of this Act shall contain any false statement, the offender shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon indictment and conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties provided by law for that crime.

Section 316K. In all hearings upon applications and remonstrances under the provisions of this Act, the general reputation of the applicant or licensee and of the place of business and of the people who congregate therein or thereat shall be admissible in evidence.

Section 316L. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act, for which no penalty is provided, shall upon conviction be subject to a fine or not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

Section 316M. All fines imposed for any violation of any provision of this act shall be disposed of as follows:

One-half of each fine shall be disposed of as provided by Section 4 of Article 38 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland. Where the offense has been committed in any incorporated City or town, one-quarter shall go to said City or town as the case may be, and the remainder one-quarter shall be paid to Allegany County for its general purposes, and where said offense has been committed outside of any incorporated City or town, one-half of said fine shall be paid to Allegany County for its general purposes.