

and the year of the date thereof painted conspicuously in some contrasting color on his or its said working unit or operating unit, in letters and figures not less than three (3) inches in height and legible, or have the same printed or stamped on a metal plate the letters and figures to be painted orange on a black background, and said unit shall always carry such license and shall exhibit the same whenever required by any police officer or other officer authorized under the laws in effect in Harford County to make arrests.

494D. The term operating unit or working unit for the purpose of this sub-title shall mean and include only such machinery, tools and equipment as shall be necessary to most successfully drive, sink, bore or dig one well at one time whatever said well shall be for.

494E. This sub-title shall not apply to any person who digs a well, cistern, reservoir or cess-pool on his own premises by mattock, pick, shovels, spade and bucket and windlass, unless he shall employ more than four laborers not regularly employed by him on or about his premises, and any men who shall be employed as drivers of trucks for the purpose of hauling supplies to or from the well, cistern, reservoir or cess-pool shall not be counted as members of the digging crew or labor, unless they shall actually dig in the well or pit.

494F. Any person, partnership, association or corporation or any agent, servant, employee or officer thereof violating any of the provisions of this sub-title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined the amount of the lawful license fee hereunder, to wit: Ten dollars ($10.00) for any resident of Harford County; twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for any resident of the State of Maryland not residing in Harford County; and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for any non-resident of the State of Maryland, for each and every offense, and each day or fraction of a day any person, partnership, association or corporation shall be engaged in such business without a license shall be considered as a separate and distinct offense.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.
