

notated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Conveyancing," sub-title "Mortgages," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

33. No mortgage shall be valid except as between the parties thereto, unless there be endorsed thereon an oath or affirmation of the mortgagee that the consideration in said mortgage is true and bona fide as therein set forth.

36. Every assignment made in the above form, or the same in substance, endorsed upon the original mortgage, shall be construed and deemed sufficient to convey to the assignee every right which the assignor possessed under said mortgage at the time of the assignment thereof, in as full and ample a manner as any instrument of writing whatever could do.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.

CHAPTER 483.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 5 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Account," as said section was amended by Chapter 342 of the Acts of 1933, changing the order of priority in the making of disbursements by an administrator.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 5 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Account," as said section was amended by Chapter 342 of the Acts of 1933, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

5. On the other side shall be stated the disbursements by him made, and which are to be made in the following order and priority: First, funeral expenses, to be allowed at the discretion of the court according to the condition and circumstances of the deceased, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00) except by special order of the Court, and
