

FIFTH: A declaration that each member of the corporation will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a director therein, if elected to act as such.

The capital stock of such corporation must be at least seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars; provided, however, that a corporation with a capital of not less than two hundred thousand dollars may be organized in a city containing more than one hundred thousand and less than two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, and a corporation may be organized with a capital of not less than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in a city containing more than twenty-five thousand inhabitants and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and with a capital of at least one hundred thousand dollars in a city or town the population of which does not exceed twenty-five thousand inhabitants, the number of inhabitants in each case to be ascertained or determined by the last Federal or State enumeration, and no trust company shall start business until all of the capital stock provided for in its charter and an additional sum equal to 20% thereof as surplus, shall have been paid for in full in money and no payment shall be regarded as made by the delivery of any note, security or property of any kind as a substitute for money, except as otherwise provided by law.

In the event that any trust company hereafter establishes a branch or branches outside of the city, town or village in which it is now located, it shall add for each branch established, to its paid-in-capital the following sums and twenty per cent (20%) thereof as additional surplus; the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in towns or villages having less than fifteen thousand (15,000) inhabitants; seventy-five thousand dollars in towns, villages or cities having more than fifteen thousand (15,000) and up to fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants, and not less than one hundred thousand dollars in towns or cities having more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants; and not less than five hundred thousand dollars in cities having more than one hundred and fifty thousand; the number of inhabitants in each case to be ascertained or determined by the last Federal or State enumerations; unless the surplus and paid-in-capital of such trust company is already sufficient under the present conditions of the law to provide the surplus and capital required by a trust company hereunder doing business in the city, town or village in which it may be located, and for branches in cities, towns or villages in which it proposes to
