

ter County, and subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools as provided by law, and said contracts and plans shall not become legally binding and effective until they have been approved as aforesaid.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, as it becomes due, and redeeming the said bonds as they mature, The Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, shall levy for the year 1935, and annually thereafter until all of said bonds issued under authority of this Act shall mature and be redeemed, a tax upon the assessable property of Dorchester County sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding, and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become due, said taxes to be collected as other taxes levied in said County are collected.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That each of said Commissions shall have the power in its name for its respective plans to make contracts for the work aforesaid, or any part thereof, or any work or expense incidental thereto, as well as for equipping or furnishing the same, subject to the approval of the Board of Education of Dorchester County and the State Superintendent of Schools, as aforesaid. The said Commissions shall invite sealed proposals for such work or equipment by advertisement to be inserted in two newspapers published in Dorchester County and such other advertisement as they may deem proper, for the performance of the work aforesaid, including heating apparatus, lighting, and ventilation of said buildings, if so decided upon, so as to make the same complete, and the said Commissions may invite bids for any one of these items of construction separately or may invite bids for one or more jointly, in its discretion; said proposals or bids shall be mailed in sealed envelopes addressed to the Chairman of the respective Commissions so inviting said proposals or bids and shall be publicly opened at the time and place mentioned in said advertisement, the respective Commissions, reserving unto themselves the right to reject any and all bids, shall award the contract or contracts to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders giving satisfactory bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty as the said Commissions shall respectively determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract entered into, which said bond shall be liable to suit by the said Commission entering into its respective contract or contracts covered by said bond, and all contracts entered