

into by said Commissions for their respective work shall be binding upon The Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, to the extent of the respective allocation of each Commission of the said "Dorchester County School Bonds of 1935" fund. All contracts for amounts of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or over, shall be in writing, and the signature of the Chairmen of the respective Commissions, attested by their respective Secretaries, if duly authorized by the respective Commissions, or a quorum thereof, shall be a sufficient execution of such contract on the part of the respective Commissions. In all of said contracts of the respective Commissions the said Contractor or contractors, as a part of his or their contract or contracts, shall agree to pay for all material and labor used in the construction of the same and furnished, and in any bond, as hereinbefore provided for, shall include the guaranty of payment of labor and for material.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That after the said work for the respective schools has been finished or the equipment purchased, should there be any balance or remainder left in the said "Dorchester County School Bonds of 1935" fund allocated to the respective Commissions, the said respective Commissions shall issue orders, vouchers, or warrants for their respective balances to be paid over to Dorchester County.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the authority hereby conferred upon The Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, to borrow money on the faith and credit of Dorchester County, and to issue bonds therefor, is in addition to any similar power and borrowing authority heretofore conferred upon them.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of Dorchester County shall keep in a book to be provided for that purpose, a full registry of the bonds sold, the serial numbers of said bonds, the names of the purchasers, the amounts realized thereon, and all redemptions and maturities thereof.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the imediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all members elected to each of the two houses of the