

firmed, and declared to be the valid, binding and subsisting general obligations of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, issued upon its full faith and credit.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and for paying the bonds themselves as they respectively mature and are payable after the issue and sale thereof under the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall annually until all of said bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, shall have matured and been paid, levy a tax upon all the assessable property in said county, sufficient to pay the annual interest on all of said bonds that may be issued and outstanding, as said interest becomes due and payable, and also a tax in each year upon all of said assessable property in said county, sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds as they respectively mature and are due and payable, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized or limited by law.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That in the event any of the bonds, notes or other obligations hereinabove in Section 5 referred to, have been heretofore or shall hereafter be retired or paid out of the general or special funds of the county, or from any other source, then the total aggregate amount of the bonds authorized to be issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 (a) of this Act shall be reduced by the amount of the bonds, notes or other obligations so retired or paid, provided, however, that in the event the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County have heretofore or shall hereafter advance from the general funds of the county sums sufficient to provide for the temporary payment of the bonds, notes or other obligations hereinabove in Section 5 referred to in anticipation of the sale of the bonds hereinabove authorized by Section 1 (a) of this Act, then the authority to issue and sell the bonds authorized to be issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 (a) of this Act shall continue in full and the proceeds of the sale of so much of said bonds as may be issued to provide funds for the refunding of the bonds, notes or other obligations already paid, as hereinabove recited, shall be paid back into the general funds of the county in order to reimburse the same for the advances so made.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for
