

to be known as Sections 174A to 174R, both inclusive, and to follow immediately after Section 174 of said Article and to read as follows:

174A. The Governor is hereby authorized, empowered and directed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the State of Maryland, if in session, and without the consent and approval, if not in session, to biennially appoint a Justice of the Peace for Calvert County at Large, and to designate said Justice of the Peace at Large and so appointed by the provisions of this Act, as "Police Justice"; Provided, however, that William W. Duke, recently appointed by the Governor a Justice of the Peace for Calvert County, will be the Police Justice until May 1, 1937.

174B. The said Police Justice as provided for in this Act shall be a resident and registered voter of Calvert County, and who, before he acts as such shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Calvert County, conditioned that he shall well and faithfully discharge, execute and perform, all and singular the duties and obligations of Police Justice; and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of said County, or to any other person or persons or persons entitled to receive same, all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed and collected by him, or received by him from any other source under the provisions of the Public General and Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, or any ordinance of any incorporated town in Calvert County, which bond shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said County, and the same shall be liable at the suit of the State for the use of the State of Maryland, or for the use of the County Commissioners of Calvert County, or for the use of any other person or persons or corporation who may be entitled to sue on the same in case of default in any of its conditions.

174C. The Police Justice so appointed by virtue of this Act, shall have an office in the town of Prince Frederick, at some suitable place, to be provided by the County Commissioners of Calvert County at the expense of the County; provided, however, that he shall be required to hold his court in the Town of Prince Frederick only on Saturdays of each week. The States Attorney for Calvert
