

thereafter pay over the proceeds thereof to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles as fines for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws are now required to be paid; and if forfeited collateral the same shall be paid over to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles as now required by Law, after deducting therefrom in any case of forfeiture any costs now authorized by law. But the failure of said accused to appear for trial as herein provided for before the said Police Justice and the forfeitures herein authorized shall not prevent the subsequent arrest, conviction and the imposition of the penalty or penalties authorized by law. Should the accused furnish the bail or collateral in any of the ways prescribed for his appearance before said Police Justice, the said Justice of the Peace taking such recognizance or collateral, or motor vehicle as surety, as the case may be, shall forthwith transmit the warrant under which the accused was brought before him, with a list of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, as well as the recognizance taken, or the collateral, or motor vehicle as surety, whichever it be, together with a copy of his docket entries and all costs incurred by him to the Police Justice, and also if in his judgment necessary, shall take recognizance in such amount or collateral in such amount as he may deem proper to compel the personal appearance of the witnesses for the State on the day fixed for the trial of said accused before said Police Justice. The said Justice of the Peace other than the Police Justice shall receive the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) in full for all his charges, and the constable or other officer, if other than a member of the State Police, shall receive the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) in full for all his charges; but should the Officer making the arrest be the Sheriff of Calvert County, or any one of his Deputies, the said Justice of the Peace shall tax as part of the cost for the service of said warrant the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), which shall be turned over to the County Commissioners of Calvert County. But no constable, sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other peace officer, shall be entitled to receive any fee for testifying as a witness in any case involving a violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws.

174E. Upon the receipt by the Police Justice of the papers in all cases of violations of any of the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Laws, or any other law, local or general, transmitted to him for trial from any other Justice of the Peace, he shall forthwith docket a case in the name of the State of Maryland against the accused and issue
