

this section, the party upon whom said fine was imposed, if he feels aggrieved thereby, may within ten days, exclusive of the day on which the fine was imposed, appeal to the Circuit Court of Calvert County from the action of said Police Justice, and pending of said appeal, shall give security for his appearance in the Circuit Court for Calvert County in the sum of twice the amount of the fine so imposed, which security may be furnished by the deposit of the amount so named in cash with the said Justice as collateral for his appearance to prosecute said appeal.

174L. The State's Attorney of Calvert County is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to appear before said Police Justice at any and all times he may in his judgment think public necessity requires his presence as the representative of the State of Maryland to participate in criminal prosecutions or hearing before said Police Justice.

174M. All fines, penalties and forfeitures of every kind, character and description, for any and all offenses imposed by any and all Justices of the Peace of Calvert County, and by this Act directed to be paid over to the Police Justice, or imposed directly by the said Police Justice, or any Judge of the Circuit Court for Calvert County, under the provisions of any Public General Law or Public Law of this State, shall be paid over to the County Commissioners for the use of Calvert County; and said County Commissioners are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy annually and expend such sum and sums as may be necessary for the maintenance of said Police Court, the salary of the said Police Justice, as well as the salary herein provided to be paid by the State's Attorney, and other expenses provided for in this act to be paid by the said County Commissioners for the uses and purposes as in this Act provided. Provided, however, that the payment over of the fines, penalties or forfeitures to the County Commissioners by the Police Justice, as herein provided, shall have no reference to, nor shall it apply to the provisions of Section 4 of Article 38, title "Fines and Forfeitures"; nor to Section 178n of Article 56, title "Licenses," sub-title "Disposition of Fines and Other Receipts"; nor to any other section of the Motor Vehicle Laws of the State of Maryland, elsewhere; nor to any fines, penalties or forfeitures directed by Article 99, title "Wild Fowl—Birds and Game," where said fines, penalties or forfeitures are directed to be paid otherwise; nor to fines,
