

from other funds of the State and to be used for the payment of such interest and principal in the event that funds otherwise provided for herein shall prove unavailable or insufficient. Such annual tax shall amount to not less than $250,000 per year and shall not be repealed, diminished or applied to any other object until the debt incurred under this Act and interest thereon, shall be fully discharged. After the interest on and principal of said promissory notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to this Act and payable each year shall have been paid and the reserve fund of $150,000 maintained, the remaining revenue produced from the said taxes each year shall be expended by the State Roads Commission as otherwise provided for by law. If such reserve fund is invested, it shall be invested only in obligations to which the full faith and credit of the State of Maryland is pledged.

80. In the event that the funds provided by the preceding section together with such other funds, if any, as may, from time to time, be appropriated by the State for the payment of said principal of and interest on said evidences of indebtedness and the maintenance of said reserve fund shall prove unavailable or insufficient, the State Roads Commission is authorized, empowered and directed to provide for the charge and collection of tolls over any bridge or bridges now erected, or to be erected, on any main route or road, routes or roads, upon or with respect to which not less than $250,000 of the funds borrowed under the provisions of this Act are to be or shall have been expended. The State Roads Commission shall have full power and authority to pledge the net proceeds from the tolls so charged, and to be collected as well as the taxes provided for in the preceding section hereof as security for any money borrowed under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That should any section, or part of a section of this Act be held to be invalid for any reason, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of any remaining section or part of a section of this Act, it being the legislative intent that the remainder of this Act shall stand, notwithstanding the invalidity of such section or part of a section.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and for maintaining the State Government and having passed by a yea and nay
