

pointed by the Governor to serve until September 30, 1936. Said Commission shall be vested with the authority and power to survey, inquire into, consider and report upon all matters incident or related to the subjects of the survey.

The Commission shall have a managing director or secretary, as the Governor shall decide, who shall be employed upon a full time basis, and shall perform such duties and services as the Commission shall direct.

The Commission shall have the right to engage legal counsel, and to employ research workers, and such accounting and clerical assistants as might be required, any and all of whom shall be removable at the pleasure of the Commission.

All of the salaries of the members of the Commission, of the managing director or secretary, of any counsel, research workers, accounting or clerical services, or any other employees, and all traveling, office expenses and all other charges and expenses incurred by or on account of the Commission shall be chargeable to and paid out of the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) provided for in the budget, for the survey of various departments, boards, institutions, commissions and other State agencies, for the fiscal years ending September 30, 1936 and September 30, 1937.

In connection with the survey herein authorized, the Commission is empowered to conduct investigations and hold hearings concerning any matter covered by this Act, and such investigations and hearings may be conducted or held at any time or place within the State of Maryland. In the conduct of any investigation or hearing the Commission shall have power to require by subpoena or summons the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books, accounts, papers and correspondence relating to any matter covered by this Act. The Commission may sign subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence. All summons so issued shall be served by the Police Department of Baltimore City or by the Sheriff of any of the Counties. In case of disobedience to any subpoena or of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Commission, the Commission may invoke the aid of the Circuit Courts of any of the counties or of the Baltimore City Court. Such Court may thereupon issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to obey the subpoena or to give evidence, or to produce books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of Court may be punished by such Court as a contempt thereof. Any false swearing before the Commission
