

66. Every undertaking or promise hereafter made, whether written or oral, expressed or implied, between any employee or prospective employee and his employer, prospective employer or any other individual, firm, company association, or corporation, whereby

(a) Either party thereto undertakes or promises to join—or to remain a member of some specific labor organization or organizations or to join or remain a member of some specific employer organization or any employer organization; and/or

(b) Either party thereto undertakes or promises not to join or not to remain a member of some specific labor organization or any labor organization or organizations, or of some specific employer organization or any employer organization or organizations; and/or

(c) Either party thereto undertakes or promises that he will withdraw from an employment relation in the event that he joins or remains a member of some specific labor organization or any labor organization or organizations or of some specific employer organization or any employer organization or organizations, is hereby declared to be contrary to public policy and shall not afford any basis for the granting of legal or equitable relief by any court against a party to such undertaking or promise, or against any other persons who may advise, urge or induce, without fraud, violence, or threat thereof, either party thereto to act in disregard of such undertaking or promise.

67. No court, nor any judge or judges thereof shall have jurisdiction to issue any restraining order or temporary or permanent injunction which in specific or general terms prohibits any person or persons from doing whether singly or in concert, any of the following acts:

(a) Ceasing or refusing to perform any work or to remain in any relation of employment regardless of any promise, undertaking, contract or agreement to do such work or to remain in such employment:

(b) Becoming or remaining a member of any labor organization or of any employer organization, regardless of any such undertaking or promise as is described in Section 66 of this Article:

(c) Paying or giving to, or withholding from, any person any strike or unemployment benefits or insurance or other moneys of things of value;

(d) By all lawful means aiding any person who is being proceeded against in, or in prosecuting any action or suit in any Court of the United States or of any State;
