

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective until it shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the town of Millington at a special election to be held in said town on May 7, 1935. There shall be printed on the ballots to be used at said election, the title of this Act and underneath said title, on separate lines, a square or box to the right of and opposite the words "For Bond Issue" and a corresponding square or box to the right of and opposite the words "Against Bond Issue" so that the voters shall be able to designate by a cross mark in the proper square or box his or her decision for or against said Bond Issue. If a majority of the votes cast on said question shall be "For Bond Issue" then this Act shall immediately become effective, but if a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be "Against Bond Issue" then this Act shall be null and void and of no effect whatsoever.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 29, 1935.
