

WHEREAS, It seems appropriate and fitting that the General Assembly should make proper recognition of this attitude on the part of these Judges and other public officers; therefore be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Judges

Carroll T. Bond,
(Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals)
William H. Adkins,
James M. Crockett,
Robert F. Duer,
Eli Frank,
Thomas J. Keating,
J. Owen Knotts,
Joseph N. Ulman,
Hammond Urner,
Arthur D. Willard,
Charles W. Woodward,

be and they are hereby commended for their attitude in voluntarily reducing their own salaries in accordance with the policy of the State in reducing the salaries of other State officials; and be it further

Resolved, That all other public officers of the State, elected or appointed for definite terms and entitled to salaries or compensation fixed by statute, and who, notwithstanding the protection afforded by the Constitution, submitted to a reduction of such salaries or compensation during the two-year period 1933-1935, be and they are hereby likewise commended for their attitude in supporting the policy of the State to reduce its expenses during said period.

Approved May 17, 1935.
