

tent of the waters of Somerset County is not sufficient for the raising of crabs and that the expenditure of funds for this purpose would be useless. I have, therefore, vetoed the bill.

CRESAPTOWN.

Chapter 295, House Bill 362, incorporates the town of Cresaptown, in Allegany County.

There was considerable protest against this bill and I have, therefore, vetoed it.

CRIMINAL LAWS.

The following bills, amending sections of Article 27 of the Annotated Code relating to "Crimes and Punishments," were passed:

Chapter 286, House Bill 382, adds a new section to Article 27, more specifically defining the crime of burglary.

Chapter 386, House Bill 383, amends the law relating to the punishment for manslaughter wherein death ensues as the result of the driving of a motor or other vehicle.

Chapter 573, Senate Bill 271, adds a new section to Article 27, relating to receiving stolen goods, money or securities.

Chapters 286 and 573 seem to be inconsistent with the O'Dunne Act and I have, therefore, vetoed them.

I have vetoed Chapter 386, as I believe the punishment for this offense should be left in the discretion of the Court.

DANCING IN DORCHESTER COUNTY.

Chapter 178, House Bill 449, would make it unlawful to permit dancing in certain places between certain hours.

No convincing reason was advanced for the approval of this bill and I have, therefore, vetoed it.

DUPLICATE BILLS.

Chapter 138, House Bill 412, relating to building associations, is a duplicate of Chapter 567, Senate Bill 165, which has been signed.

Chapter 139, House Bill 211, relating to unredeemed shares in building associations, is a duplicate of Chapter 474, Senate Bill 166, which has been signed.

Chapter 143, House Bill 181, relating to additional writs of attachment, is a duplicate of Chapter 546, Senate Bill 120, which has been signed.
