

privilege of connecting with same, the said rentals or charges to be used for the payment of the interest on said sewer bonds and for the retirement of the same and for the maintenance and improvement of said sewer system and shall not be diverted for any other purpose or discontinued until all of said sewer bonds shall have matured and been paid. In the event that the said excess surplus receipts from water and light rents and the receipts from the charges or rentals for sewers shall not be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on said sewer bonds or the principal thereof, as it shall become due, the said Mayor and Council shall annually levy on the taxable property of said town such sums of money, in addition to the levy heretofore authorized, as shall, in their discretion, be necessary for the prompt payment of the interest on said sewer bonds and the principal thereof as it may become due.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 29, 1935.

---

CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 205 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," to authorize the payment of county taxes in two equal installments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 205 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

205. He shall, as soon as the annual levy is made, give notice thereof by advertisement in two newspapers, pub-