

Chapter 434 of the Acts of 1931 to provide for the entire issue of said certificates of indebtedness or the issue of any part thereof, and declaring this Act to be an emergency law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 4 of Chapter 434 of the Acts of 1931 be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

Section 4. That in the expenditure of the proceeds of said certificates of indebtedness, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall observe the following conditions:

(a) The Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore City shall approve the sites for the construction of the new school buildings hereby authorized before such sites are acquired by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

(b) All plans and specifications for the construction or reconstruction of school buildings, or for additions or improvements to school buildings, to be financed out of the proceeds of the loan herein authorized, shall be subject to approval by said Board of School Commissioners prior to final acceptance of such plans and specifications, and the endorsement of approval by said Board of such plans and specifications shall be made thereon, and shall also be recorded by said Board in its official minutes.

(c) That any ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore submitted to the legal voters of Baltimore City under the authority of this Act, shall provide for the entire issue of certificates of indebtedness or for the issue of any part thereof, and shall further provide for the expenditure of the proceeds thereof in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of Baltimore, and by the municipal agency designated in the annual ordinances of estimates of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved: April 4, 1935.
