

206. The applicant for a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind whatsoever, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court upon the issuing of such license the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for one year or such pro rata part of said sum for a shorter period; provided, however, that the applicant for a license to sell beer only either off or on sale shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court upon issuing of such license, the sum of Thirty-Five Dollars ($35.00) for one year or such pro rata part of said sum for a shorter period. And any licensee who shall take out said license shall have the right to sell beer and wine for consumption on or off the premises and spirituous liquors for consumption off the premises and in the original containers only. All the funds received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court under the provisions of this section, less the Clerk's fee and any refunds, shall be paid over by him to the County Commissioners of Charles County, and one-half of said funds so received by the said County Commissioners shall be used by them in reducing the tax rate required to be levied for the public schools of said County by the general state law and one-half thereof shall be used for general county purposes. Provided, however, that in all cases where the license is for a place located in an incorporated town, the said license fee shall be paid by the Clerk of the Court to the Treasurer of said town, to be used for general town purposes.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred ($500) dollars.

207. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this sub-title to sell to any minor or habitual drunkard. And it shall also be unlawful for any licensee under this sub-title to sell liquors on the Sabbath Day commonly called Sunday, or any Election Day, nor shall any liquors be sold by any licensee between the hours of 12 midnight and 6 o'clock A. M. But this section shall not prevent the sale of any wine, beer or other spirituous or fermented beverages containing less than 8% alcohol by volume, on any day or at any time. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon trial and conviction shall be subjected to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or may be confined in the County Jail or in the House of Correction for not less than sixty days; and the Court in its discretion may suppress the license of any licensee, and no license shall be issued
