

with costs in the discretion of the Court, to the time of entry of such judgment, and if the amount so admitted to be due shall not be below the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaintiff may at once have execution therefor, and upon such entry of judgment the plaintiff may join issue or reply to the pleas as to the disputed portion, and the case shall be proceeded with as to such disputed portion in the same manner as if the suit had been originally instituted for the recovery of the same; and the Court shall have jurisdiction as to such disputed portion in all cases where the amount originally claimed shall be within the jurisdiction of the Court, but if either judgment in the case be below the jurisdiction of the Court, no execution shall issue from that Court on the same, and the provisions of Section 17 of Article 26 of the Code of Public General Laws shall apply thereto; yet if the sum of the two judgments shall equal such jurisdiction they may then be included in an execution issued from that Court; provided, that the Court for good cause shown, may, by its order in writing, passed at any time before judgment, extend the time for filing such pleas and affidavits, which extension shall suspend, until the expiration thereof, the plaintiff's right to enter judgment under this section.

189B. The plaintiff shall not be entitled to judgment under the preceding section, unless at the time of bringing his action he shall file with his declaration an affidavit, or affirmation if the affiant is conscientiously scrupulous as to taking an oath, stating the true amount the defendant is indebted to him, over and above all discounts, and shall also file the bond, bill of exchange, promissory note or other writing or account by which the defendant is so indebted; or if the action be founded upon a verbal or implied contract, he shall file a statement of the particulars of the defendant's indebtedness thereunder. If there are two or more plaintiffs, the said affidavit or affirmation may be by any one of them, or if all the plaintiffs be absent from or nonresidents of the State at the time of the bringing of said suit, or if the plaintiff be a corporation, the said affidavit or affirmation may be made by any agent of plaintiff or plaintiffs, or any of them, who will make further oath or affirmation that he has personal knowledge of the matters therein stated, and that he is the duly authorized agent of the plaintiff for the purpose of making the affidavit or affirmation; and the said affirmation or affidavit may be made before the Clerk of any Court of Record in this State, any Justice of the Peace of this State or
