

urer, a solicitor, and a health officer, to hold office for two years or until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Mayor and Town Council shall fix the compensation of each and of all subordinates under them, and shall prescribe their duties, except as herein provided; provided, however, that the compensation of the clerk-treasurer shall not exceed ten per centum of moneys collected by him. They shall attend the meetings of the Mayor and Town Council and perform such duties as they may be directed to perform. The clerk-treasurer shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Mayor and Town Council in a well-bound book to be provided by the Mayor and Town Council, which shall be open to inspection by all persons interested therein. He shall receive the taxes and other moneys due the town, keeping a record of each item; shall keep all moneys belonging to the town and disburse the same only in accordance with the regulations and orders of the Mayor and Town Council and perform such other clerical duties as the Mayor and Town Council may direct. The clerk-treasurer shall give bond to the Mayor and Town Council in such penalties and with such sureties as the Mayor and Town Council may require. The Town Police who shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the Town Council, shall preserve the peace and good order of the town and enforce the Public General Laws and Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland as well as the ordinances passed by the Mayor and Town Council, and for this purpose they are vested with as full power and authority to make arrests and serve criminal processes within the boundary limits of the said town as constables now have or may have hereafter under the laws of the State; provided that the power and authority of said Town Police and the criminal jurisdiction of said Town shall extend to and cover the entire area of the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard from the intersection of the east boundary line of Fort Lincoln Cemetery, extended with the north line of said boulevard to the intersection of the high water line on the east bank of Anascostia River with the north line of said boulevard. The authority of the Town Police to retain custody of a person under arrest shall continue outside of the town while in the course of taking such person before a Justice of the Peace or to jail. The Health Officer shall make frequent inspections, as often as may be necessary, and shall have as full power and authority to enforce the Public Health Laws of the State of Maryland, and to promote and maintain the public health and sanitary conditions of the town, as State Health Officers now have,