

The poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

In the event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against such special assessment shall be in favor of allowing such assessment, then this Act shall be in full force and effect; but in the event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against such special assessment, then the Mayor and Town Council may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said Town at the general Town election to be held in July, 1936, in the same method and manner as hereinbefore provided, and if a majority of the votes cast at said second election upon said question shall be in favor of such special assessment then this Act shall be in full force and effect; but if a majority of the votes cast upon said question at such second election shall be against such special assessment then this Act shall be void and of no effect.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved: May 17, 1935.
