

also act as clerk for said body, and who in addition to his or her duties as treasurer shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well-bound book which shall be open to inspection of all bona fide residents of said town, and said clerk shall perform such other duties as the Mayor and Council may assign to him or her.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall annually appoint one or more bailiffs for said town, who are hereby declared to have and are vested with all powers of a constable of Prince George's County within the said town limits, and who shall perform such duties as may be required of them by said Mayor and Common Council, and who shall preserve the peace and good order of said town.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall establish a reasonable salary or compensation for the Treasurer. All the appointees of the Mayor and Common Council shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of said Mayor and Common Council. The Mayor and Common Council may appoint the same person to perform the duties of more than one office.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That before any elective or appointive officer of the said town of Fairmount Heights shall enter upon his or her duties he or she shall make oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths in said Prince George's County; that he or she will diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of his or her office and he or she shall file a certificate of such oath with the clerk of said Mayor and Common Council which shall become part of the record of the said town.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer shall give bond to the Mayor and Common Council in such surety or sureties as said Mayor and Common Council may require, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council may pass such ordinances not inconsistent with law, as in their judgment may be for the best interests of the town and provide in such ordinances the penalties and punishment for violations thereof; they shall have supervision over the sidewalks, streets, roads and alleys of said town; provide fire protection, pass ordinances