Church of the Caroline Station) and through the burial grounds of the Trustees of Saint Patrick's Church (now vested in the Archbishop of Baltimore), as required by Chapter 36 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1852.

SEC. 2.   And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 17, 1935.

CHAPTER 203.

AN ACT to amend Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927 by adding a new section thereto, to be known as Section 2½, providing for the use of the whole or any part of any certificates of indebtedness authorized by said Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927 but unissued at the time of the passage of this Act, for the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of a site and the construction thereon of a wing to the Museum Building owned by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for making any necessary alterations or changes in said Museum Building, and for furnishing and equipping said wing for the purpose of housing the Art Collection formerly owned by Mrs. Mary F. Jacobs, and further providing that the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall have the right to use any part of said unissued certificates not necessary for the purpose of providing said wing, for any of the purposes set out in said Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927; empowering the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to provide by Ordinance for the expenditure of the proceeds of said loan and the submission of the same to the legal voters of Baltimore City, as required by Section 7 of Article XI of the Constitution of Maryland; and declaring this Act to be an emergency law.

WHEREAS, Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927 authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to issue certificates of indebtedness of said Corporation to an amount
