

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section, to be known as Section 21½, be and the same is hereby added to Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927, to read as follows:

21½. That the whole or any part of the proceeds of any certificates of indebtedness unissued at the time of the passage of this amendment to Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927, not exceeding their par value, may be used by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for the acquisition by purchase or condemnation of a site and the construction thereon of a wing to the Museum Building located on Art Museum Drive in the City of Baltimore and owned by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, for making any necessary alterations or changes in said Museum Building, and for furnishing and equipping said wing for the purpose of housing the art collection of Mrs. Mary F. Jacobs, which has been given to the Baltimore Museum of Art upon the condition that the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore provide a wing to the said Museum Building for housing and displaying the said collection. That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall have the right to use any part of said unissued certificates not necessary for the purpose above set out, for any of the purposes set out in Chapter 312 of the Acts of 1927. That no stock or bonds shall be issued for purposes of this Act unless an ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore providing for the issuance thereof shall be submitted to the legal voters of Baltimore City at such time and place as may be fixed by said ordinance, and be approved by a majority of the votes cast at such time and place as required by Section 7 of Article XI of the Constitution of Maryland, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in submitting an ordinance for the issuance of said stock or bonds to the legal voters of Baltimore City, may submit the same at the municipal election to be held in Baltimore City on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in May, 1935, or it may submit or re-submit the same at any municipal or general election thereafter.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1935.
