

was enacted by Chapter 69 of the Acts of the Extraordinary Session of 1933, authorizing hunting and fishing under certain conditions on the lands formed by the channel excavations in Sinepuxent, Isle of Wight and Chincoteague Bays or by natural causes.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 27 of Article 19A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Conservation of Natural Resources," sub-title "Lands Formed by Channel Excavation in Sinepuxent and Chincoteague Bays," as said section was amended by Chapter 69 of the Acts of the Extraordinary Session of 1933, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

27. All lands made or formed by the dumping or depositing of excavated material in the Sinepuxent, Isle of Wight and Chincoteague Bays during the construction or maintenance of the Ocean City Inlet and Channel in said Bays, as well as all land now made or which may hereafter be made or formed by natural causes since the opening of the inlet in August, 1933, between the ocean and the bays, are hereby declared to be natural resources of the State of Maryland and title to the same shall be retained for the use of the Conservation Department, and no patent therefor shall hereafter be issued by the Land Commissioner of Maryland. The Conservation Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to use said lands for Conservation purposes in such manner and under such regulations as in his discretion he may deem for the best interest of the State, subject, however, to the approval of the Board of Public Works. Provided, however, that persons who have licenses to hunt or fish in Worcester County shall have the right to hunt or fish, as the case may be, on said lands during the open season for such hunting or fishing.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.
