

CHAPTER 279.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Article 75, Section 147 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law," sub-title "Supplementary Proceedings."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 75, Section 147 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, titled "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law," sub-title "Supplementary Proceedings" be repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

147. At any time within which an attachment or execution might issue upon judgment or decree upon satisfactory proof being made to the court by affidavit or otherwise by the judgment creditor that it is probable that the judgment debtor has property or credits which would be liable to said attachment or execution and that the said judgment debtor is concealing or has concealed or disposed of the same with intent to evade the effect of said judgment, or at any time after the expiration of ninety (90) days from the entry of any final judgment or decree where said judgment or decree has not been paid or satisfied, the court wherein said judgment was rendered shall issue an order requiring said debtor to attend and be examined concerning said property or credits at a time and place specified in said order, either in open court or before a standing commissioner or examiner as therein directed; the judge, commissioner or examiner may adjourn the proceedings under such order from time to time as he may think proper, and at any stage of the proceedings the court may in its discretion make a further order that any other examination or testimony be taken by a commissioner or examiner designated therein.

Approved April 29, 1935.
