

the provisions of this Act, the mortgagee shall have the right without process of law immediately to take possession of the mortgaged property and do all things necessary to preserve same, and any expense incurred in connection therewith shall be included in and secured by the lien of said mortgage.

54N. Foreclosure and Power of Sale: In addition to any other methods of foreclosing chattel mortgages under the laws of this state, chattel mortgages executed under and pursuant to this Act may be foreclosed in the manner provided for in said mortgage. Where such mortgage contains a power of sale the same may be foreclosed upon compliance with the provisions of sale as set out in said mortgage; provided, all sales are made at public auction.

54-O. Construction and Effect: This Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes hereof and substantial compliance herewith shall be sufficient hereunder. The provisions of this Act, so far as the same are applicable, shall govern and control chattel mortgages given under and pursuant hereto. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. All laws or clauses of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved April 29, 1935.
